DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

1. Claims 1-7 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Kato et al. (US 6,316,101) or Fujimoto et al. (US 6,284,370). Both of the cited prior arts disclose polyester fibers and yarns, comprising polyester made in the presence of Ti and P compounds as claimed. See column 6, lines 41-57; column 9, line 59 through column 10, line 67; and Example 1 in column 17 of the '101. See the abstract; column 3, lines 38-48; column 4, lines 17-19; column 5, lines 1-30, and column 6, line 18 of the '370.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

The text of those sections of Title 35, U.S. Code not included in this action can be found in a prior Office action.

The factual inquiries set forth in Graham v. John Deere Co., 383 U.S. 1, 148 USPQ 459 (1966), that are applied for establishing a background for determining obviousness under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) are summarized as follows:

Art Unit: 1711

1. Determining the scope and contents of the prior art.
2. Ascertaining the differences between the prior art and the claims at issue.
3. Resolving the level of ordinary skill in the pertinent art.
4. Considering objective evidence present in the application indicating obviousness or nonobviousness.

2. Claims 1-7 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Okumura et al.(JP 54-45397, English translation included) further in view of Cho et al.(US 2003/0059612).

Okumura discloses polymerization process of polyester in the presence of identical catalytic system (see claims 1-8), but silent about use of this polyester for fiber related application.

However, polyester fibers and use of polyester fibers for knitted, woven or non-woven fabric is known in the art.

Cho discloses use of polyester fibers as multifilament yarn with same Dtex(denier) and Silk Factor as claimed by Applicant in Claim1 (see Table 1).

Therefore, it would have been obvious to one ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention to use polyester obtain by process of Okumura for fiber related application as tire cord as taught by Cho.

Double Patenting

The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. A nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting rejection is appropriate where the conflicting claims are not identical, but at least one examined application claim is not patentably distinct from the reference claim(s) because the examined application claim is either anticipated by, or would have been obvious over, the reference claim(s). See, e.g., In re Berg, 140 F.3d 1428, 46 USPQ2d 1226 (Fed. Cir. 1998); In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir.

Art Unit: 1711

1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) or 1.321(d) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent either is shown to be commonly owned with this application, or claims an invention made as a result of activities undertaken within the scope of a joint research agreement.

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

Claims 1-7 provisionally rejected on the ground of nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1- 7 of copending Application No.10/541,757. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because, claims of both Applications significantly overlapping in scope as claimed subject matter drawn to polyester fibers, obtain by the same polymerization process with same catalytic system in both Applications.

This is a provisional obviousness-type double patenting rejection over allowed Application No. 10/541,757 because the conflicting claims have not in fact been patented.
